WOW! What a busy winter! AZ Blankets held FOUR bees since January 15th, visited numerous groups, met hundreds of marvelous volunteers, and collected and delivered 2,517 blankets.

Here are some of the activities that keep those blankets coming in so that we can bring a smile to a child's face as they receive their very own.

Two Florence High School sisters have been attending our sewing bees for the past several years. A'Vanti and Mia Glenn and their mother Ze'Etta spend many Saturdays working with us. These girls not only volunteer for AZ Blankets 4 Kids but also spend hours with various other non-profit organizations. They are part of the International Baccalaureate program at FHS.

Visiting our Sewing Groups

On Monday Feb 27th some of the board member drove to Queen Valley for a "mini bee". We bring the quilts for the sewing group to work on. The "Chain Gang" kept busy all day tying quilts for us. Everyone enjoyed a

Success at La Hacienda Bee

The winners of the quilt raffle were the Birch sisters: Abby and Grace. They gave the quilt to their teacher, Jessie Schroth at her baby shower.

La Hacienda hosted a fun-filled bee in February.

In addition to our wonderful volunteers who showed up, we had visits from the Chandler Girl Scouts and from the Youth Patriot Group. Everyone got to work and finished lots of comfy blankets for our kids.

Sue Koesser from "Welcome to America," one of our agencies, spoke about the work they do.

Sandy Howell & Dollars for Doers

Sandy Howell accepting Thank you from Letty.

Sandy Howell gets our award as Volunteer of the Year. Sandy and her husband Bob have been F-Troop directors the past four years. They have spent countless hours working on the fund-raising activities of F-Troop, all of the proceeds going to AZB4Ks. Sandy also attends almost all the bees, sewing for our kids.

Sandy works full-time for SRP who has a "Dollars for Doers" program. They will donate dollars to a non-profit organization when an employee applies for it. Sandy applied and we got a grant.

THEN Sandy was awarded a special "Volunteer of the year" award by SRP which resulted in AZB4K getting another financial grant.

Thank you Sandy. You are AWESOME!

Happy and exhausted workers after the bee. It was a fun season!

The weather outside was cold and windy but that didn't stop the ladies who came to our final bee of the season at Sunland Springs Village. The heat from the humming sewing machines and friendly chatter kept the room warm and toasty. Everyone kept busy all day, cutting, sewing, tying and bagging up quilts.

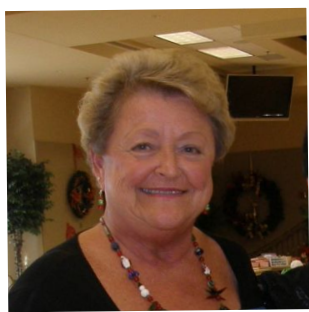

The ladies at Sunland Springs served an outstanding lunch from Subway.

Viewpoint Annual Quilt Show

The Quilter Point of View group from Viewpoint held their annual Arts and Craft Festival March 3rd. This included a booth for AZ Blankets 4 Kids. Joanne Rheingans greets Mary Stolze, Gloria Wood and Letty Fowell from AZB4K

Letty's Letter

Happy Summer to all of our wonderful and dedicated volunteers. AZ Blankets 4 Kids could not be successful without all of you.

A sincere thanks to all of you for making our program a big success.

The board has accepted two new agencies. Mountain Vista Medical Center and Phoenix Children's Hospital East Valley. We are excited to add these new agencies to our current list. In addition, the board pre approved a third agency. Our list is growing and the need for more blankets is increasing.

Our main goal is "sharing your talents and love by making blankets for seriously ill or traumatized children". It is important to keep in mind the quality of the blankets we make from preemies to teens.

Thus far in 2012 we have been fortunate to have received donations from the following: Valley of the Sun United Way, Desert Club of Mesa, SRP Dollars for Doers, Fountain of the Sun Quilt Group, Holiday Village Quilters, and other miscellaneous donations. We are very grateful for these donations in this economy.

Thanks for all that you do and have a wonderful summer.

Hugs & Stitches, Letty xox

Emmanuel Pines Camp

It's almost time again for the annual Emmanuel Pine Camp hosted by Cutting Edge Quilt Shop. Camp will be held August 10 -12 in Prescott, AZ. Camp opens at 3:00 pm on Friday the 10th and ends after lunch on Sunday.

Price is only $150 and includes 5 meals, two nights and lots of fun! Must be paid by July 15th

There will be kits to sew for AZ Blankets 4 Kids, but you can bring anything of your choice to sew. There will be games, demos and prizes!

You have to bring your own bedding, towels, toiletries, etc. Bring shares too to share.
